

Member Management Litmos Courses

1) Member Management

Description: This course provides the cycle of AmeriCorps program development; includes details of two core grantee responsibilities (leading a member management plan and cultivating strong member experiences); details important record-keeping requirements (especially member file management); and describes the role of State Service Commissions in member management.

Access this course

2) Member Position Descriptions

Description: This course explains grantee responsibilities and requirements for member position descriptions; provides components of description and tips for creating strong descriptions; details structure and use of regular review process; and includes three examples (math coach, conservation corps member, disaster response crew leader).

Access this course

3) AmeriCorps Prohibited Activities

Description: This course provides summary of all activities, as of February 2014; spotlights prohibition on religious activity, abortion services, and political advocacy; contains six diverse scenarios to analyze provides summary of all activities, as of February 2014; spotlights prohibition on religious activity, abortion services, and political advocacy; contains six diverse scenarios to analyze.

Access this course

4) AmeriCorps Allowable and Unallowable Activities

Description: This course explains grantee responsibilities and consequences of failing to successfully monitor grant and member activities; contains six diverse practice scenarios to analyze.

Access this course

